

title "County Treasurer", relating to the advertisement of tax sales in said county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 368 of Article 17 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (Flack—1930 Edition), title "Prince George's County", sub-title "County Treasurer", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows:

368. All tax sales of real estate shall be advertised for four consecutive issues, any other provisions in any of the local laws relating to tax sales in Prince George's County to the contrary notwithstanding, in three newspapers published in Prince George's County, to be selected by the Treasurer; provided that the newspapers so selected shall have been established in their respective towns at least two years preceding the date of the first publication of said advertisement; and the cost of such advertisement in and for each newspaper shall not exceed the sum of one dollar and thirty cents for a tax sale, which sum of money shall be charged against the property offered for sale as items of cost after six o'clock P. M. on the Saturday next preceding the date of the issue of said newspapers in which said advertisement shall first appear. The Treasurer shall deliver the copy of said advertisement to the publishers of said newspapers not later than ten o'clock A. M. on the Monday of the week in which the first publication of said tax sale advertisement shall appear. A tax sale shall consist of all the real estate in any election district of the county advertised for sale and belonging to the same person. In the matter of the sale of personal property for taxes, the Treasurer shall be allowed costs similar to those allowed by law in the cases of seizure and sale of personal property by distraint, except he shall receive no fee or commission therein.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1st, 1939.

Approved May 3, 1939.
