(b) (2) Weekly Benefit for Unemployment. Each eligible individual who is unemployed in any week shall be paid with respect to such week a benefit in an amount equal to his weekly benefit amount less that part of the wages (if any) payable to him with respect to such week which is in excess of $2.00.

(c) Duration of Benefits. Any otherwise eligible individual shall be entitled during any benefit year to a total amount of benefits equal to whichever is the lesser of (1) sixteen times his weekly benefit amount, and (2) one-fourth of the wages earned by him for insured work during his base period; provided that such total amount of benefits, if not a multiple of $1.00, shall be computed to the next higher multiple of $1.00.

(d) Reciprocal Benefit Arrangements. The Board is hereby authorized to enter into arrangements with the appropriate agencies of other States or the Federal Government whereby potential rights to benefits accumulated under the unemployment compensation laws of the several States or under such a law of the Federal Government, or both, may constitute the basis for the payment of benefits through a single appropriate agency under terms which the Board finds will be fair and reasonable as to all affected interests and will not result in any substantial loss to the fund.

Benefit Eligibility Conditions.

4. An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the Board finds that—

(a) He has registered for work at and thereafter continued to report at a re-employment office in accordance with such
