CHAPTER 325.

(Senate Bill 361)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments section 84A of Article 13 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Harford County", sub-title "Assessments"; as the same was enacted by Chapter 260 of the Acts of 1933; providing for the issuance of a permit by the County Commissioners of Harford County before any buildings are erected in Harford County.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section 84A of Article 13 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Harford County", sub-title "Assessments", be repealed and re-enacted to read as follows:

84A. Hereafter no building or structure of any kind whatsoever exceeding in value one hundred dollars shall be erected or constructed in Harford County, without a permit in writing, obtained from the office of the County Commissioners of Harford County. Any contractor or owner who is about to erect or construct any new building or structure, or who is about to construct any addition to any existing building, in said County, under the provisions of this Act, must first apply, verbally or in writing to the office of the said Commissioners, giving a general description of the said proposed building or addition and the location, together with the contemplated value thereof, and obtain said permit, for which no fee shall be charged by said Commissioners. Any person or corporation failing to comply with the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before a
