

added to Article 99 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1924 Edition), title "Water Fowl—Birds and Game", said new section to be known as Section 64A, to follow immediately after Section 64 of said Article, and to read as follows:

64A. The State of Maryland hereby assents to the provisions of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide that the United States shall aid the States in wild life—restoration projects, and for other purposes," approved on September 2, 1937, (Public No. 415—75 Congress) and the Commission or Department charged with the administration and enforcement of this Article is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to perform such acts as may be necessary to the conduct and establishment of administrative cooperative wild life—restoration projects, as defined in said Act of Congress, in compliance with said Act and the rules and regulations promulgated by the Secretary of Agriculture thereunder; and no funds accruing to the State Game Protection Fund of the State of Maryland from license fees paid by hunters shall be diverted for any other purpose than for the administration, protection, restoration and propagation of game administered by the Commission or Department charged with the administration and enforcement of this Article.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect on June 1st, 1939.

Approved May 3, 1939.

CHAPTER 328.

(Senate Bill 369)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 67 of Article 11 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1935 Supplement), title "Banks and Trust Companies", sub-title "General Regulations", as said section was amended by Chapter 177 of the Acts of 1937, authorizing the pledging of bonds or mortgages guaranteed by the Federal Housing Administration or by any other Federal agency.
