

Burkittsville to Jefferson; thence west to a stone on the road leading from Burkittsville to Knoxville; thence northwest to the road that leaves the road from Burkittsville to Gapland; thence east to a bridge on the road from Burkittsville to Middletown; thence southeast to a stone on the road from Burkittsville to E. L. Karn's farm, that divides the land of E. L. Karn and W. C. Karn; thence south to the place of beginning, all points about one-eighth mile from said town.

57. The citizens of Burkittsville, of the age of twenty-one years and upward, who have resided in said town for six months next preceding the election, shall on the first Monday in May, annually elect three freeholders, who have resided in said town for six months next preceding said election, as Commissioners of Burkittsville, to serve for one year or until their successors shall be elected and qualified; they shall receive no pay for their services.

58. The three Commissioners shall at their first meeting after election, elect one of their number to be president of the board; and all vacancies in the Board of Commissioners shall be filled by any election held after ten days' notice given by the remaining Commissioners.

59. The said Commissioners shall meet in said town on or before the first Monday in June succeeding their election, and from time to time as occasion may require.

60. The Commissioners shall annually appoint a clerk, who shall keep the minutes of the proceedings in a well-bound book, which shall be open to the inspection of all persons interested therein, and shall perform such other duties as the Commissioners may assign him.

61. The Commissioners shall annually, on or before the first Monday in April, appoint three judges of election, who shall conduct the election according to the election laws of the State, except that the polls shall be open at 2 o'clock P. M. and closed at 8 P. M. The first election held under the provisions of this Act shall be held on the first Monday in May in the year nineteen hundred and thirty-nine; Ralph Weedy, Atlee Horine and Clark Smith are hereby appointed judges for that purpose.

62. The Commissioners may annually appoint a bailiff for said town who shall perform such duties as may be required of him by said Commissioners, and preserve peace and good order in said town, and for that purpose he shall have all the powers of a constable.
