

or fish from inland waters, and may, upon its own initiative or upon written petition of fifty licensed residents of any county, propose regulations for such purpose. The full text of any regulations proposed shall be published ten days before the same may be acted upon and shall name the time and place that the matters mentioned therein will be taken up, at which time any interested citizen shall be heard. Such publication shall be made in a newspaper published in the county and if there be none such, in a newspaper in an adjoining county or section, or in such manner as may be convenient. If the Commission is satisfied that the proposed regulation, or any part thereof is advisable, such regulation, or any part thereof, may be adopted in the manner directed for proposing the same and shall name the date when it is to become effective. It shall be a misdemeanor to violate such regulation, or any part thereof, and any person convicted of such violation shall be fined not less than Ten Dollars ($10.00) nor more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) and may be sentenced to thirty (30) days in jail, either, or both, in the discretion of the court or justice before whom said person shall be tried. A copy of any regulation adopted by the Commission shall be mailed to the Clerk of the Circuit Court who shall make a record thereof and cause the same to be posted in front of the Court House of the County.

5. The Game Warden shall have the power to appoint deputy game wardens to assist him in more efficiently enforcing the game and inland fish laws of this State, he may issue a commission signed by him to such persons as he may designate to act as Deputy Game Wardens to enforce said laws, who shall be known as "Non-Salaried Deputy Game Wardens". Such persons may be appointed for the whole State or such county or counties, city or cities, as the Game Warden may designate. Such deputy game wardens shall not receive a salary from the State, County or Counties, or Cities, but shall be paid such compensation out of the State Game Protection Fund as the Game Warden may determine.

The Game Warden may also appoint deputy game wardens for the whole State or for such County or Counties, City or Cities as he may designate. Such deputy game wardens shall be known as "Salaried Officers" and shall be appointed with the approval of the Commission. Each deputy game warden so appointed shall receive a salary of not less than Twelve Hundred Dollars ($1,200.00) per annum; provided, however, that the present salaried deputy game wardens shall receive during the current fiscal year compensation at the same rate as prior to the enactment of this Act. Each deputy game warden who shall have been rated by the State Game Warden in
