

Frederick Female Seminary, Scholarships Fund. In consideration of said endowment Hood College shall annually provide tuition scholarships in said Institution, to be known as Frederick Female Seminary Scholarships, in number and amounts equivalent in the aggregate to not less than fourteen annual full tuition scholarships, to be awarded by said College to qualified and deserving female students who are residents of Frederick County, Maryland, the allotments and awards of said scholarships to be subject to the approval of the Board of Education of Frederick County. The investment of said endowment fund shall be in securities other than the obligations of the College and shall be subject to the approval of a financial institution selected for that purpose, in the first instance, by agreement of the Trustees and the College, any subsequent change in said selection to be by agreement of the College and said County Board of Education. The cost of such investment service to be paid out of the income from said endowment fund, and the investments thereof shall be reported by the College to said County Board of Education annually. In the event that the purposes of said endowment, as herein specified, should at any time in the future, and for any reason, fail of accomplishment, the said endowment fund and investments shall be transferred to the Board of Education of Frederick County to be administered by it for the procurement of scholarships to be used in aid of the higher education of female students. When the transfer hereby authorized shall have been made to Hood College by the Trustees of the Frederick Female Seminary, all of the rights and interests of said Trustees with respect to the administration and contingent reversion of said endowment shall be and are hereby transferred to and vested in the Board of Education of Frederick County, and the corporate existence of the Trustees of the Frederick Female Seminary shall thereupon be hereby terminated.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect on the first day of June 1, 1939.

Approved May 3, 1939.
