

trary by the judge imposing such new sentence. If the crime is committed in another State, the Director of Parole and Probation shall file with the Warden or Superintendent of the penal institution in such other state in which such paroled prisoner may be confined in penalty thereof, a declaration of violation of parole to serve as a detainer upon his release from such institution.

55-B. It shall be the duty of the Director of Parole and Probation to make such investigations of applicants for Executive Clemency as the Governor may require, and the Director shall make recommendations concerning such applications when requested by the Governor. It shall also be the duty of the Director of Parole and Probation to supervise the conduct of any persons released into his custody on conditional pardons granted by the Governor; and he shall immediately report to the Governor any breach of the conditions of any such conditional pardon.

55-C. Whenever the Circuit Court of any County or the Criminal Court of Baltimore City shall suspend the sentence of any person convicted of crime, and shall direct such person to continue, for a certain time, or until otherwise ordered, under the supervision of the Director of Parole and Probation, it shall be the duty of the said Director to supervise, when so requested by said Court, the conduct of such person and to ascertain and report to said Court whether or not the conditions of such probation or suspension of sentence are being faithfully complied with by such person.

The parole officers of the Division of Parole and Probation shall whenever feasible be available to the judges of the said Courts for the purpose of making investigations or performing such other probationary services as the said judges may from time to time request.

55-D. The State's Attorneys in the several Counties and the City of Baltimore are hereby required to make and transmit to the Board of Parole and Probation and the Warden of the Penitentiary, or other penal institution to which the prisoner may be sentenced, a resume of the facts and evidence adduced in each case tried in the Circuit Courts of the several Counties of the State, and in the Criminal Court of Baltimore City wherein a verdict of guilty was found, and a sentence of one year or more has been imposed, so that the Board of Parole and Probation and the Warden of the Penitentiary or other penal institution to which the prisoner may be sentenced may have on
