

342 of said Article, providing for the paying of bounties for killing grey foxes, hawks and owls in Worcester County.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That two new sections be and they are hereby added to Article 24 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Worcester County", to be under sub-title "Wild Animals", said new sections to be known as Sections 342A and 342B, to follow immediately after Section 342 of said Article, and to read as follows:

342A. Any citizen of Worcester County, Maryland, who shall kill or destroy a grey fox, owl or hawk (fish hawk excepted), within the limits of Worcester County, shall be entitled to the following allowance or bounty, viz: For each grey fox, the sum of $2.00, for each hawk (fish hawk excepted), the sum of $0.25, and for each owl, the sum of $0.25.

342B. To obtain such allowance, it shall be necessary for the person killing such game or birds, to produce the head, skin or scalp of the same before some Justice of the Peace of said County and at the same time make oath that the animal, game or bird was taken and killed within the limits of Worcester County, within 30 days before the production of the head, skin or scalp before the Justice of the Peace; the said Justice shall thereupon give the person producing the same a certificate of such head, skin or scalp as was produced before him, wherein he shall set forth the above-mentioned oath; and it shall also be the duty of the Justice of the Peace to mark such head, skin or scalp by cutting holes through the ears to prevent any second allowance for the same.

Upon presentation of the above-mentioned certificate to the Treasurer of said County, The said Treasurer shall pay the allowance or bounty as provided in Section 342A of this Article.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1939.

Approved May 17, 1939.
