

herein contained shall affect the status or pension rights of former employees of the Traffic Court now on retirement.

205L. Clerks. There shall be nine clerical assistants who shall be designated clerks, four of whom shall receive salaries of $1,200 per annum and five of whom shall receive salaries of $900 per annum, said clerks to be appointed by the chief magistrate and their salaries set by him, subject to the approval of the Governor as provided in the State budget. The chief magistrate shall have the power to readjust the salaries of said clerks in his discretion within the limits herein set.

All clerical assistants provided for in this Act shall be appointed by the Chief Magistrate from lists prepared by the Board of Police Examiners in the same manner that candidates for the Baltimore City Police Force are now appointed.

The dockets and records of arrests and convictions and all other records shall be kept by the clerks in such form and under such plan as may jointly be agreed upon by the chief magistrate of the Traffic Court and the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles.

The four Police Lieutenants now assigned to duty in the Traffic Court shall be relieved of said duty provided that they are returned to active duty in the Police Department with the rank of Lieutenant; and the number of Police Lieutenants now fixed by law for Baltimore City is hereby increased by four to accommodate said Lieutenants hereby returned to active duty in the Police Department.

205M. Corporate Bond. The Supervisor, Assistant Supervisor and Court Clerks herein provided for shall give to the State of Maryland and file with the Clerk of the Criminal Court of Baltimore City a good and sufficient bond with corporate security to be approved by the Chief Judge of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore in the penalty of $10,000 each, upon the conditions expressed in each of said bonds that the person giving it will truly and faithfully discharge, execute and perform all and singular the duties and obligations of his office or position and that he will account and pay over to the proper authority all fees, costs, fines, penalties and forfeitures which he is bound to account for and pay over as aforesaid, and that he will faithfully and truly account for and pay over to the party entitled thereto by law all money belonging to such party which may come into his hands.
