

205N. Accounting. The several court clerks herein provided for shall collect and take charge of all fines, penalties, forfeitures, fees and costs imposed by the magistrate to whose court he is assigned and he shall account to the Supervisor for all such monies collected by him at the close of the Court session each day. The Supervisor shall account, within the time prescribed by the Motor Vehicle Laws, to the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles for all fines, forfeitures, penalties, fees and costs collected in the Traffic Court.

The several magistrates assigned to the Traffic Court shall handle no funds of the Court and shall not be required to give any other additional bond than that required by other justices of the peace under Section 715 of Article 4 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1938 Edition).

205-O. Quarters. The Mayor and City Council of Baltimore shall provide suitable and proper quarters for said Traffic Court in the Police Department Headquarters or such other place as may be convenient and suitable.

205P. Expenses. All necessary expenses for the operation of the Traffic Court, including the salaries of the magistrates, substitute magistrates and clerks herein provided for, shall be paid out of monies in the hands of the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles realized and collected from fines and costs imposed by the Traffic Court.

205Q. Process. Whenever the owner or operator of a motor vehicle is accused of a violation of any provision of the automobile laws of the State, or of any local ordinance, rules or regulations of any municipality or county of this State, and a warrant, summons or notice is served upon him to appear for trial, before a magistrate of the Traffic Court, he shall be notified in said warrant, summons or notice of the nature and character of the charge against him, and the day and hour of each trial shall be fixed at such time, so far as may be practicable, as shall cause the least inconvenience to such persons and the witnesses in said cases.

205R. Probation of Minors. The magistrates of the Traffic Court shall have and possess the power to release on probation any persons under the age of 21 years who may be found guilty of violating the Motor Vehicle Laws of this State, such release on probation to be in lieu of the payment of fine or service of sentence.
