

(1930 Edition), title "Washington County", to be under sub-title "Wild Animals", said new sections to be known as Sections 816A, 816B and 816C of said Article, to follow immediately after Section 816 of said Article, and to read as follows:

816A. Any citizen of Washington County, Maryland, who shall kill or destroy a fox, wildcat, weasel, horned owl, hawk or crow, within the limits of Washington County, shall be entitled to the following allowance or bounty, viz: For each fox, the sum of $2.00, for each wildcat, the sum of $2.00, for each weasel, the sum of $.50, for each hawk the sum of $.50, for each horned owl, the sum of $1.00 and for each crow the sum of $.05.

816B. In order to obtain such allowance, it shall be necessary for the person, or parent, or guardian of the person or persons, killing a fox, wildcat, weasel, horned owl, hawk or crow, to produce the skin or skins of such fox, wildcat or weasel and the head or heads of such hawk, horned owl or crow before the Clerk of the County Commissioners of Washington County, and at the same time make oath in due form that the said fox, wildcat, weasel, horned owl, hawk or crow, as the case may be, was taken and killed within the limits of said Washington County, within sixty days before the production of said skin or skins or head or heads to the said Clerk of the County Commissioners. The said Clerk of the County Commissioners shall thereupon give to the person or persons producing said skin or skins, or head or heads, a certificate that such skin or skins, or head or heads were produced before him, wherein he shall set forth the above mentioned oath. And it shall also be the duty of the said Clerk of the County Commissioners, to mark any such skin or skins, by means of perforating both ears and forehead of such skin or skins, by means of a special perforating machine to be furnished said Clerk by the said County Commissioners of Washington County and to destroy the head or heads of any hawk, horned owl or crow, in order that no person or persons may collect said allowance or bounty on any skin or skins, head or heads, more than one time. Upon presentation of said certificate, above mentioned, to the Treasurer of said Washington County, the Treasurer shall pay the allowance or bounty as provided in Section 816A hereof.

816C. Any person, persons, firm or corporation, found guilty of violating any of the provisions of this sub-title, shall be found guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than One Hundred Dollars ($100) or
