

elections, and all persons not registered therein shall not be entitled to vote at any election held in said city under the provisions hereof. There shall be a general registration of all the voters in said city, possessing the qualifications herein prescribed on the third Monday and Tuesday of April, 1941, between the hours of 8 o'clock A. M. and 6 o'clock P. M., by said Board of Registration, and also every six years thereafter, after the notice hereinbefore provided, and in all other respects in accordance with the requirements of this Act.

And on the third Monday in April in each and every year, except the years for a general registration, the said board shall sit, between the hours of 8 o'clock A. M. and 6 o'clock P. M. for supplemental registration and revision, after giving the notice as hereinbefore prescribed, at which sittings duly qualified voters may register, and the names of any persons on the said books of registration who have removed from the said city or for other reasons are disqualified as voters, shall be erased from the said books by the said board upon their own initiative or upon the affidavit of any bona fide resident of the city that such person or persons are not residents of the city or are otherwise disqualified and not entitled to register and vote in said city elections. And provided that anyone who shall feel aggrieved at the action of the said Board of Registration, shall have the right of appeal to the Circuit Court of Carroll County at any time within ten days after the last day of such registration or revision.

One of the members of the Board of Registration shall administer to all persons who shall personally apply to register the following oath or affirmation: "You do solemnly swear (or affirm) that you will fully and truly answer all such questions as shall be put to you touching your place of residence, name, age, color, actual place of domicile in Westminster and the time thereof, your qualifications as a voter, and your right as such to register and vote."

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent with the provisions of this Act be and the same are hereby repealed to the extent of any such inconsistency.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed upon a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.
