

Saturday may be a legal holiday), and at each of said respective sittings shall sit to hear, try and determine cases, and to perform all the duties which he is required by law to perform. The said respective Justices of the Peace, so selected to sit at any station-house in the City of Baltimore, shall transact no other business at such station-house except the business required of them, by the several sections of this sub-title of this Article, to be by them, respectively, performed at such station-house. The attendance at any such station-house of an additional Justice of the Peace shall be regulated and controlled by the Governor; but the Governor in regulating the attendance of an additional Justice of the Peace at a station-house shall not assign any Justice of the Peace to said station-house, under this section or Section 737 of this said Article 4, other than a Justice of the Peace selected by the Governor to sit at a station-house in said city, as long as one of the said Justices of the Peace so assigned by the Governor shall be available for said purpose.

737. If any Justice of the Peace who has been selected as aforesaid to sit at any station-house in the City of Baltimore is unable, by reason of sickness or other unavoidable cause, to attend to his duty at said station-house, or fails to attend at said station-house, at any time, when his presence is there required, it shall be the duty of the Governor to require another Justice of the Peace to perform the duties at said station-house, of the said Justice of the Peace so sick or absent; and it shall be the duty of the said Justice of the Peace so required to perform said duties at said station-house, to perform the same as long as may be necessary, or until the Governor shall select another Justice to perform said duties; the Justice of the Peace so required to perform said duties at said station-house by the Governor, shall receive six dollars per day for every day he shall actually serve at such station-house; which pay shall be deducted from the pay provided to be paid to the Justice selected to sit at such station-house and failing to attend; provided, that said pay of the said Justice who may sit in the absence of the Justice so selected to sit at any station-house, shall not be deducted from the pay of the said last-named Justice, if the Governor shall certify that such absence was by reason of his necessary attendance upon any court or Justice of the Peace of said State, under its process, nor when such absence shall not exceed thirty days in the course of any one year, and when the Governor shall certify that such last-named absence, not
