

478. On the first Monday in May, 1941, an election shall be held within the corporate limits of the town of Secretary between the hours of one and six o'clock P. M., for the purpose of election by ballot five qualified voters in and residents of said town to serve as the Commissioners thereof. At the first election to be held hereunder, three of said Commissioners shall be elected for a term of one year, and until their successors are elected and qualified and two of such Commissioners shall be elected for a term of two years and until their successors are elected and qualified, and at each election to be held thereafter, the Commissioners to be elected therein shall be so elected to serve a term of two years, and until their successors are elected and qualified. A person desiring to be a candidate for Commissioner shall, at least fifteen days before the election file with the Commissioners a certificate of his candidacy, and at the first election to be held hereunder the certificate of each candidate shall set forth whether he is a candidate for a one year term or a two year term. At least ten days before any election, the Commissioners shall post in five or more conspicuous places in said town the names of all persons to be voted upon for Commissioners in the approaching election, and at the first election to be held hereunder the term of office. The Commissioners shall provide a sufficient number of ballots for each election containing the names of all the candidates for Commissioners to be voted for therein arranged in alphabetical order and in the general form of the ballots used in the county elections, and in addition thereto, at the first election held hereunder, the ballots shall have printed thereon "For a One Year Term" (vote for three) and "For a Two Year Term" (vote for two), and under the said respective captions shall be placed the name of each candidate to be voted upon for a one year term or a two year term, respectively.

479. On Wednesday next following each election the Commissioners shall proceed to organize by electing one of their number President and appointing some capable, well-qualified person, as Clerk, whose duty shall be to keep a correct record of all their official proceeding, and to perform such other duties as provided for in this sub-title or such other duties as the Commissioners may by ordinance designate. Said Clerk shall also act as treasurer of said town, giving to the Commissioners a bond with sufficient security, to be approved by them in the penalty of at least one thousand dollars ($1000.00), conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as treasurer.
