

such person for an accident occurring before such proof was given, but after January 1, 1932, such license or licenses and certificate or certificates shall again be and remain so suspended, and no other such license or certificate shall be issued to such person while any such judgment remains unsatisfied and subsisting, as aforesaid.

Provided, however, anything in this sub-title to the contrary notwithstanding, that

(1) When $5,000 has been credited upon any judgment or judgments rendered in excess of that amount for personal injury to or the death of one person as the result of any one accident; or

(2) When, subject to the limit of $5,000 for any one person so injured or killed, the sum of $10,000 has been credited upon any judgment or judgments rendered in excess of that amount for personal injury to or the death of more than one person as the result of any one accident; or

(3) When $1,000 has been credited upon any judgment or judgments rendered in excess of that amount for damage to property as the result of any one accident; resulting from the ownership, maintenance, use or operation of a motor vehicle, then and in such event, such payment or payments shall be deemed a satisfaction of such judgment or judgments for the purposes of this section only.

And provided further, that a judgment debtor to whom this section applies may, for the sole purpose of giving authority to the Commissioner to authorize the judgment debtor to operate a motor vehicle thereafter, on due notice to the judgment creditor, apply to the court in which the trial judgment was obtained for the privilege of paying such judgment in installments, and the court, in its discretion and without prejudice to any other legal remedies which the judgment creditor may have, may so order, fixing the amounts and times of payment of the installments. While the judgment debtor is not in default in payment of such installments, the Commissioner, upon his giving proof of ability to respond in damages for future accidents, as hereinbefore provided, may, in his discretion, restore or refrain from suspending his license and/or registration certificate or certificates; but such license and/or certificate or certificates shall be suspended as hereinbefore provided if and when the Commissioner is satisfied that the judgment debtor has failed to comply with the terms of the court order.

If any such motor vehicle owner or operator shall not be a resident of this State, the privilege of operating any motor vehicle in this State and the privilege of operation
