

eral Provisions", be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

48. Publishing or Broadcasting of Advertisements of Unlicensed Companies, Advisers, etc., Unlawful. It shall be unlawful for any person, co-partnership, association, or corporation to publish or print in any newspaper, magazine, periodical, circular letter, pamphlet, or in any other manner, or to publish by radio broadcasting in this State, any advertisement or other notice, either directly or indirectly setting forth the advantages of or soliciting business for any insurance company, association, society, exchange, adviser or other person, who, or which, has not been authorized to do business in this State. No person, co-partnership, association or corporation shall accept for publication or printing in any newspaper, magazine or other periodical, or for radio broadcasting, in this State, any advertisement or other notice, either directly or indirectly setting forth the advantages of or soliciting business for any insurance company, association, society, exchange, adviser, or other person, unless such person, co-partnership, association or corporation shall hold an unexpired certificate from the Insurance Department, or such radio broadcasting includes a statement that the broadcasting station holds such certificate to the effect that the insurance company, association, society, exchange, adviser, or other person, named therein is authorized to do business in this State for the current license year. Such certificate shall be issued by the Insurance Department without cost to any person applying therefor. Any person, co-partnership, association or corporation violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to a fine of not less than two hundred dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars, for every such violation.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1941.

Approved May 26, 1941.
