

request grant such a hearing, and he may, in his discretion, reinstate such license.

(9) No license or renewal license shall be issued to any applicant unless there shall be on file with the Commissioner a bond approved by him as to form and sufficiency of security and executed by such applicant and by approved sureties, in the penal sum of one thousand dollars conditioned upon the faithful performance by such licensee named in such license of their duties as insurance advisers. Such bond shall be made to the State of Maryland, and shall specifically authorize recovery by the State of the penal sum provided therein in case the insurance adviser shall have been guilty of fraudulent or dishonest practices in connection with the transaction of his or its business as an insurance adviser.

(10) The Commissioner may at any time require such information as he deems necessary in respect to the business methods, policies, contracts and transactions of a person, firm, association or corporation licensed hereunder. Such information shall be furnished within ten days after receiving written request therefor, and in such form as the Commissioner may require.

(11) No contract or agreement between an insurance adviser and any other person relating to the giving of advice, recommendations or information of the type referred to in Sub-section two of this Section, shall be enforceable by or on behalf of such insurance adviser unless it is in writing, and executed personally in duplicate by the person to be charged or by his legal representative, nor unless one of said duplicates is delivered to and retained by such person when it is signed by him, nor unless it plainly specifies the amount of the fee paid or to be paid by such person and the services to be rendered by such insurance adviser, nor unless it is in a form currently approved by the Commissioner. All forms of statements, receipts, contracts, agreements or other forms to be used in connection therewith by any insurance adviser licensed hereunder, shall be filed with the Commissioner and approved by him as conforming to the requirements of this Section and not inconsistent with law, and not misleading in any way. The Commissioner may disapprove any such form if he finds that the same contains any provision, or has any title, heading, backing or other indication of the contents of any or all of its provisions, which is likely to be misleading, or if he finds that the same omits any provision which in the discretion of the Commissioner is required to make any such form clear and not misleading.

(12) An insurance adviser, licensed under this Section who furnishes any advice, make any recommendation or gives any information as such adviser shall in every case
