

were employees of the House of Reformation prior to its acquisition by the State in determining their benefits under any retirement system to which said employees may be entitled and shall be entitled to retirement on the same terms and conditions as if all the time served had been in said institution after its acquisition by the State.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1941.

Approved May 6, 1941.

CHAPTER 646.

(House Bill 369)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 829 of Article 11 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Frederick County", sub-title "Walkersville", extending the corporate limits of the town of Walkersville.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 829 of Article 11 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Frederick County", sub-title "Walkersville", be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

829. The corporate limits of the town of Walkersville, of Frederick County, Maryland, shall include all land lying within the following boundaries: Beginning at the bridge over the Glade Branch on the road leading from Walkersville to Bigg's Ford, on the Monocacy, and following said Glade Branch to a point one hundred feet northeast of the grounds of the canning factory now owned by Mrs. Charles W. Ross and trading as the Monocacy Valley Canning Co.; thence with a line parallel with the northeast line of the canning factory ground to the Pennsylvania Railroad, following said railroad to the road leading from Walkersville to the Glade Cemetery; thence with said road to the land now owned by Mrs. Edward G. Valentine; thence with the north side of said Valentine property ninety feet to the northeast corner of said property; thence with the east side of said Valentine property to the southeast corner thereof at the center of an abandoned roadway near the end of Liberty Street; thence with a line through the lands of Mrs. Ada Cramer to the center of the gateway on said land on the Woodsboro and Frederick State Road; thence with a