CHAPTER 659.

(House Bill 695)

AN ACT to add seven new sections to Article 1 of the Public Local Laws of Allegany County, title "Allegany County", sub-title "Frostburg", sub-heading "Parks and Playgrounds", said new sections to be known as Sections 251A to 251G, both inclusive, and to follow immediately after Section 251 of said Article, authorizing the Mayor and Councilmen of Frostburg, through an unpaid commission to be appointed by it, to own, operate and assume full power and control of the Allegany Cemetery, and to pass all rules, orders and regulations in reference to the same.

WHEREAS, Allegany Cemetery, at or near Frostburg, has been a burial place for approximately twelve thousand persons during the period of its existence, to wit, seventy-seven years; and

WHEREAS, the same is now owned by The Allegany Cemetery Company, a private corporation; and

WHEREAS, said cemetery for many years has been maintained in an unsightly condition and many burial plots therein have been permitted to be overgrown with weeds and brush and the driveways likewise permitted to become rutted and in a deplorable condition; and

WHEREAS, burial grounds are of concern from the standpoint of health; and, if such places are not properly maintained by private enterprise, it then becomes the duty of the State to meet the necessity; now, therefore
