

been duly made and not withdrawn, in accordance with the provisions of this Article and no other names; the names of the candidates for each office nominated as required by the provisions of this Article shall be grouped together under a heading designating for what office said candidates have been nominated; and there shall be left below the list of candidates for each different office, a blank space in which the voter may insert in writing or otherwise the name of any person not printed on the ballot, for whom he may desire to vote as a candidate for such office; the ballots shall be so printed as to give each voter a clear opportunity to designate by a cross (X) mark in a sufficient margin at the right of the name of each candidate and each voter shall be considered as having voted for such candidate opposite to whose name he shall on the margin to the right put a cross (X) mark; the ballots shall be printed in black ink on clear white paper; before being distributed the ballots shall be folded so that the width and length shall be uniform, and of proper width to be placed without difficulty in the ballot boxes provided by law; on the outside and back shall be printed the words "Official Ballot for the town of Boonsboro" followed by the date of election and a facsimile of the signature of the Mayor of Boonsboro, beneath which shall be printed "Mayor of Boonsboro".

45B. Any person desiring to vote shall present himself at the place of election to vote, and give his name to the Clerk of the Election, and if such name be found by the Judge of Election upon the list of registered voters, the said Clerk of Election shall give to said voter one and only one ballot; before giving the ballot to the voter said Clerk shall place his own initials immediately beneath the facsimile signature; and the said voter shall retire alone to one of the voting booths, where the said voter shall vote his ballot privately, by placing a cross (X) mark opposite the name of the candidate for whom he desires to vote, and no voter shall be allowed more than three minutes of time in making out his ballot, at the end of which time and at the demand of the Clerk of Election, every voter shall immediately surrender his said ballot to the Judge of Election, designated for that purpose properly folded, so as to show the initials of the Clerk of Election, and if said initials shall properly appear thereon, the said ballot shall be received and placed in the ballot box; and the Judge of Election shall note on the Poll Book such person has voted. If any ballot be spoiled by a voter he may surrender same and receive from said Clerk a second ballot to be voted on. No person shall vote at any Municipal election except by the use of an official ballot as herein prescribed.
