

SEC. 3. The Town of Berwyn shall be divided for election purposes into five wards as follows:

First Ward: The First Ward shall embrace all of the town lying south of the northerly line of Central Avenue and said line extended to the town limits.

Second Ward: The Second Ward shall embrace the territory between the northerly line of Central Avenue and the northerly line of Branchville Road and said lines extended to the town limits.

Third Ward: The Third Ward shall embrace the territory between the northerly line of Branchville Road and the northerly line of C Street and said lines extended to the town limits.

Fourth Ward: The Fourth Ward shall embrace all of the town lying north of the northerly line of C Street and said line extended to the town limits.

SEC. 4. The government of said town shall be vested in the Mayor and Town Council composed of the Mayor elected at large from the town and four councilmen, one to be elected from each ward.

SEC. 5. The Mayor and Town Council shall meet in said town on the first Monday following their election, and shall hold regular meetings at least once a month thereafter to convene at eight o'clock P. M. and which meetings shall be opened to the public. Special meetings may be called by the Mayor at any time by giving 24 hours' notice to the councilmen. Special meetings may be called at any time by three members of the council by a 24 hour written notice to the Mayor and the other members of the council. The Mayor shall preside at all meetings of the council, but shall have no vote unless there is a tie vote in which case the Mayor may vote to break the tie. The Mayor shall either sign or veto all ordinances within ten days after their passage, and if he fails to sign or veto any ordinance within ten days after passage it shall automatically become law. If the Mayor shall veto any ordinance, the Mayor and Town Council may reconsider it, and if it is again passed with a two-thirds majority of the members of the council, it shall become law over such veto. Proposed ordinances introduced before the Mayor and Town Council shall be in writing, and shall be read and laid on the table until a later date when it shall be read again before passage. At the second reading of such ordinance any resident of the town opposing the passage of such ordinance shall be permitted to appear or file a brief in opposition to such ordinance. After the second reading of such ordinance and the consideration of objections, an aye and nay vote shall be taken and recorded in the minutes of the town. Any proposed ordinance submitted to the Mayor and Town Council by petition of one hundred or
