

57-J. Authority of Governor to Arrange for Appointment of Special Policemen for the Preservation and Protection of Public Property Located Without the State. The Governor of this State is hereby authorized, in his discretion, to make application to the Governor of any other state for the appointment of special policemen for the additional protection of any property situated wholly or partly in such other state, owned by this State, or any political subdivision thereof, or by any department or agency of either, or any tax or special district therein, or in which any of the foregoing has any interest. The State, political subdivision, department, agency or district owning or having an interest in the property for the protection of which any such special policeman is appointed shall be liable for the compensation and expenses of such policeman and shall have full power and authority to provide or otherwise arrange for the payment of such compensation and expenses. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to relieve the state or the political subdivision thereof in which such property or any part thereof is situated from its duty to furnish for such property or part thereof such normal police protection as it ordinarily and customarily provides for other property situated therein.

57-K. Severability. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That any and all other laws or parts of laws, whether general or local, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved May 2, 1941.