

and the rank, branch, and unit of such service that he entered, and the dates within which he was in military service, the monthly pay received by such person at the date of issuing the certificate, the time when and the place where such person died in or was discharged from such service.

(2) Any such certificate when purporting to be signed by any one of such officers or by any person purporting upon the face of the certificate to have been so authorized shall be prima facie evidence of its contents and of the authority of the signer to issue the same.

(3) Where a person in military service has been reported missing he shall be presumed to continue in service until accounted for, and no period herein limited which begins or ends with the death of such person shall begin or end until the death of such person is in fact reported to or found by the Department of War or Navy, or any court or board thereof, or until such death is found by a court of competent jurisdiction; provided, that no period herein limited which begins or ends with the death of such person shall be extended hereby beyond a period of six months after the time when this Article ceases to be in force.

19. Any interlocutory order made by any court under the provisions of this Article may, upon the court's own motion or otherwise, be revoked, modified, or extended by it upon such notice to the parties affected as it may require.

20. This Article shall remain in force until May 15, 1945; provided, that should the United States be then engaged in a war, this Article shall remain in force until such war is terminated by a treaty of peace proclaimed by the President and for six months thereafter; provided, further, that wherever under any section or provision of this Article a proceeding, remedy, privilege, stay, limitation, accounting, or other transaction has been authorized or provided with respect to military service performed prior to the date herein fixed for the termination of this Article, such section or provision shall be deemed to continue in full force and effect so long as may be necessary to the exercise or enjoyment of such proceeding, remedy, privilege, stay, limitation, accounting or other transaction.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the provisions of this Act are intended to be supplemental to, and in furtherance of, the Act of Congress known as the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940. Nothing in this Act, nor the omission of any matter from this Act, shall be construed to be in derogation of any right, privilege or protection granted to
