

section be and it is hereby added to said Section 2, said new sub-section to be known as sub-section (ff), to follow immediately after sub-section (f) of said Section 2; and all to read as follows:

2. (f) No license shall be required for the importation of alcoholic beverages intended for export beyond the territorial limits of this State, provided such alcoholic beverages are stored in public and government controlled warehouses and not for sale and delivery within this State, but the Comptroller may require any such importer to obtain a permit for the transaction of such business under such rules and regulations as he may deem necessary. A non-resident manufacturer or dealer in alcoholic beverages may sell and deliver alcoholic beverages from a location outside of Maryland without a license to any duly licensed manufacturer or wholesaler, but not to any other license holder in this State or to any other person in this State except as further provided in this Article.

(ff) No license shall be required of a person to operate a warehouse where alcoholic beverages are stored for the accounts of other persons, or to transport alcoholic beverages into, within or out of the State of Maryland, but the Comptroller may require such persons to obtain a permit for the transaction of such business under such rules and regulations as he may deem necessary.

3. (1) (a) A manufacturer's license shall entitle the holder to establish and operate in this State a plant for the distilling, rectifying, blending, brewing, fermenting or bottling of alcoholic beverages at the location therein described, to import alcoholic beverages, and to sell and deliver alcoholic beverages to any other license or permit holder, but shall not permit the bottling of beer except where the same is brewed. Delivery from a truck or vehicle under the exclusive control of the holder of such a license, of beer previously acquired by and delivered to the license holder, shall constitute delivery from his place of business within the meaning of this section. Such licensee shall be authorized to operate only one location in the State, but a distiller may establish and operate a rectifying, blending and bottling plant at a different location from his distillery, and may manufacture, rectify, blend and bottle alcoholic beverages in the name of another person, if such other person is the holder of a manufacturer's license in this State, provided, however, such licensee shall be privileged to apply for and obtain a wholesaler's license as provided under this Article.

Such licensee may sell for export to any person under such regulations as the Comptroller may prescribe, but shall not sell alcoholic beverages to any person in this State other than
