

mine to be just. Any owner of such property failing to remove such obstruction within such time as may be limited in the notice from the County Commissioners of Baltimore County to do so shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and subject to a fine of not less than Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) and not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00). Provided, however, that in addition to the criminal penalty herein provided for, the County Commissioners of Baltimore County shall have the further right and power, after giving the aforesaid notice and upon failure of the owner of such property to comply therewith, to have such trees, bushes, vines, fences, signs or other obstructions removed and charge the cost of such removal to the owner or owners of said property, which said cost or charges shall be a lien on said property and be collected in the same manner as taxes are now collected.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect on and after June 1, 1941.

Approved May 2, 1941.

CHAPTER 761.

(House Bill 214)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Sections 39 to 63, both inclusive, of Article 17 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1939 Edition), title "Prince George's County", sub-title "Bladensburg", said amendments being a general revision of the Charter for the Village of Bladensburg, changing the official name thereof, and granting additional powers, including the power to borrow money.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 39 to 63, both inclusive, of Article 17 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Prince George's County", sub-title "Bladensburg", be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

39. The citizens of the Town of Bladensburg, in Prince George's County, are a body corporate, by the name of "Commissioners of the Town of Bladensburg", and by that name may sue, and be sued, and may have and use a common seal, and may purchase and hold real, personal and mixed property, and lease, sell or otherwise dispose of the same for the benefit of the Town.
