

Supervisors of Election, the Commissioner shall appoint a qualified person to fill said vacancy.

The third Monday and the third Friday in the month of April, preceding the biennial election, are hereby designated as days of registration, and the supervisors of election shall give public notice, at least ten days prior to said Monday, by not less than ten printed or written notices posted at conspicuous places in said Town, stating the place and the hours during which they will sit for the purpose of registering qualified voters provided said supervisors shall sit not less than six hours on each of said days, to be arranged by them, to best suit the public convenience.

Each of said supervisors shall be furnished by the Commissioners, prior to the first registration under this Act, with a well bound registration book in which book there shall be provided spaces for the name of each person registering, his age, color, actual place of residence and date of registration, and a space where each person registering shall sign his or her name, or in which his or her mark shall be made if he or she is unable to write. Said books shall be returned to the Town Commissioners within three days after each election, and such books shall thereupon become the official registration books of the Town and shall be delivered to the supervisors of the election the day preceding the next registration. The supervisors, acting as registration officials, shall swear each applicant for registration, and if upon the examination of such applicant, it appears to both of them that such applicant is a qualified voter, in accordance with Section 41 hereof, they shall each register his name in said registration books; and all persons so registered shall be entitled to vote at Town elections so long as the names appear upon such registration books.

The supervisors of election, acting as registration officials, on the first of said registration days, whenever an affidavit is made before them by a registered voter of said Town, that any name upon said books is not entitled to be thereupon, shall note said name and shall by placing in the United States mail, on said first registration day, addressed to said voter at the place of residence set out in said registration books, postage prepaid, a notice that his name has been noted for striking off and that they will act thereon at a fixed time on the second day of registration, and at the time fixed the said supervisors shall determine, after hearing such evidence as may be presented, whether such name shall be stricken off, and in the event they shall determine that the name shall be stricken off, they shall strike such name by running a line in red ink through such name and noting thereon the day of striking; and no person whose name is thus stricken off shall be entitled to vote in said Town elections.
