

commissioners of all receipts and disbursements during the month.

48. The clerk shall enter all ordinances passed by the commissioners in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, which shall at all times be open to the inspection of all persons interested, and a copy of all ordinances shall be posted in at least five public places in the town.

49. The Commissioners may annually appoint one or more Town police, who, before entering upon his duties, shall make oath before a justice of the peace of said county, that he will faithfully and impartially perform the duties required of him as police of said town, according to the best of his skill and judgment; who shall also give bond in the sum of Fifty Dollars for the faithful performance of his duties, the said bond to be approved by the said Commissioners, and who shall serve during the pleasure of said Commissioners, and who shall have power within said Town to make arrests for the violations of the public general laws and public local laws as well as the ordinances of the said Town, and to maintain custody of persons outside of the Town while in custody in taking them to a justice or to jail.

50. The said police shall attend the meetings of the Commissioners when required and perform such services as they direct.

51. The Commissioners may pass all ordinances necessary to give effect to the powers vested in them by this charter, and provide for minimum and maximum fines, penalties and forfeitures for the breach of their ordinances; but no ordinance shall provide for a fine, penalty, or forfeiture, for any one offense, of more than One Hundred Dollars and confinement in jail for more than thirty days.

52. All fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed by any ordinances may be collected as small debts are, and shall be applied in such manner, for the use of said town, as may from time to time be directed by ordinance.

53. The said Commissioners may by ordinance provide for the regulation of animals running at large in said Town, and may provide by ordinance for the parking of automobiles, trucks and other vehicles in said Town.

54. The public ground and property within said corporation, belonging to the town, shall be vested in the Commissioners, to have and to hold for the benefit of said corporation, its successors and assigns.
