and Prince George's Counties, the purpose of the amendment being to remove the provision that neighboring property owners or occupants be required to prove special damage in order to institute proceedings to restrain violations of the said chapter or regulations adopted thereunder.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 26 of Chapter 714 of the Laws of Maryland of 1937, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, so as to read as follows:

SECTION 26. And be it further enacted, That the construction, reconstruction, erection, structural alteration or use of any building or other structure or the use of land or premises in violation of any of the provisions of this Act or of any of the provisions of any regulation enacted under this Act or of any decision made under this Act is hereby declared to be a misdemeanor. The wilful issuance of a building, use or occupancy permit in violation of any such provision or decision is hereby declared to be a misdemeanor. The Commission, the Board of County Commissioners of Montgomery or Prince Georges County or the prosecuting official of either of said counties may prosecute any such violation; and, in addition to all other remedies provided by law, the Commission, said Boards of County Commissioners, and public official of any municipality or political subdivision within the District, or any neighboring property owner or occupant (who would be specially damaged by any such violation) may institute injunction, mandamus or other appropriate action or proceeding to prevent such unlawful construction, reconstruction, erection, alteration or use, and any court of competent jurisdiction is hereby granted jurisdiction to issue restraining orders and temporary or permanent injunctions or mandamus or other appropriate forms of remedy or relief.

Approved May 6, 1941.

CHAPTER 790.

(House Bill 663)

AN ACT to alter and amend the laws relating to inheritance taxes.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 111 of Article 81 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1939 Edition), title "Revenue and Taxes", sub-title