

No person shall possess at any time a light for the purpose of hunting muskrats at night time. Possession of such a light shall be prima facie evidence that it was intended for such purpose.

A landowner and his lessee shall have the exclusive right to trap for muskrats down to the mean low water mark on marsh land adjacent to his land. No person shall enter upon or place traps upon any such land without first obtaining the written consent of the landowner or his lessee.

(c) No person may pursue or kill any otter in this State at any time.

(d) No person may hunt any raccoon or opossum except after sunset and before sunrise on any day between November 1 and the next succeeding January 31, inclusive. No person may cut a tree for the purpose of catching, killing or dislodging a raccoon or opossum without the consent of the owner of such tree. No person may at any time set or otherwise use any steel trap or other similar device to catch any raccoon or opossum.

The owner of any dog may, between October 1 and October 20, inclusive, train such dog on a raccoon or opossum, if an attendant accompanies such dog, but such attendant may not carry a gun or any other firearms, or climbers or an ax.

No person may between February 1 and October 31, inclusive, shake or throw out of any tree or hollow any raccoon or opossum.

No person may have any raccoon or opossum (dead or alive) in his possession, except for business purposes, unless he first procures a permit from the State Game Warden.

Any raccoon which destroys a muskrat or its home in the marsh areas of this State may be hunted or killed at any time. It shall be lawful for any owner of an impounded lake to kill muskrat which are destroying their embankments or dam of said lake or lakes at any time.

(e) Any person found guilty before any Justice of the Peace of this State of violating any provision of this sub-title, shall be fined not less than Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars nor more than One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars for each and every offense, and in addition to said fine shall be fined Five Dollars ($5.00) for each skin in his possession in violation of this sub-title. All such skins, pelts or meats or illegal devices found in any person's possession in violation of this sub-title shall be confiscated by the officers making the arrest and turned over to the Game Warden who may dispose of same as he may deem advisable to the best interest of this State.

Any person who shall fail to pay the fine so imposed, shall stand committed to jail until the fine and costs shall have
