Court. Should a permanent receiver be appointed, the temporary receiver shall turn over all property in his possession, less such as may be necessary to cover his expenses and compensation as allowed by the Court, to the permanent receiver, shall file his final account and, upon its approval, be discharged. Should the application for permanent receiver be denied, the temporary receiver shall restore to those from whom it may have been obtained all property in his possession, less such only as may be necessary to cover his expenses and compenation as allowed by the Court, shall file his final account and be discharged. Where the application is denied, the expenses of the temporary receivership and the compensation of the temporary receiver may, in the discretion of the Court, be taxed as costs of the proceeding to be paid by the applicant and shall be enforceable by the temporary receiver against him.

280D. Notice. All notices required under this subtitle shall be served upon all parties ordered by the Court to be served in the manner prescribed by existing statutees or rules, except that in addition thereto the absentee shall be served by publication once a week for four consecutive weeks in a newspaper printed in the English language or general circulation in the County or City of the absentee's domicile, the last publication to be not less than ten (10) nor more than twenty (20) days prior to the time set for any hearing. The original notice prescribed in Section 280C, sub-section (1), shall require each person claiming an interest in the property of the absentee to file in Court within a time fixed by the Court a statement of the nature and extent of such interest.

280E. Search For Absentee. The Court, upon application, may direct the receiver to make search for the absentee in any manner which the Court may deem advisable, including any or all of the following methods:

(a) By inserting in one or more suitable periodicals a notice requesting information from any person having knowledge of the absentee's whereabouts;

(b) By notifying officers of justice and public welfare agencies in appropriate locations of the absentee's disappearance;

(c) By engaging the services of an investigation agency.

The expenses of such search and of the notices provided for in Section 280D shall be taxed as costs and paid out of the property of the absentee.
