

(1939 Edition), title "State Roads", such new sections to follow immediately after Section 122 of said Article, under a new sub-title "Motorways", to be known as Sections 122A to 122R, inclusive, and to read as follows:

MOTORWAYS

122A. For the purpose of eliminating present traffic congestion and the dangers, actual and potential, to life and property resulting therefrom, for the purpose of remedying the inadequacy of certain portions of the highway system to meet future demands upon such system, to insure the future adequacy of such system, and to facilitate the movement of vehicular traffic through and within the State, the State Roads Commission is hereby authorized and empowered:

(a) To establish, construct, operate and maintain a motorway, as hereinafter defined, from, near or through Baltimore City, Maryland, which shall include a bridge over or a tunnel under the Patapsco River, to the district line of the District of Columbia, between a point or points at, near or within Baltimore City to a point or points at or near the district line of the District of Columbia, and to be located with such course or courses as may be determined by the Commission to be most suitable for the purposes of this sub-title; such motorway to constitute a new highway artery of the State, connecting with other State highways so as to be a part of highway arteries of the State running through the whole State, north and south, such connecting roads leading into the States of Pennsylvania, Delaware, Virginia and the District of Columbia;

(b) To issue revenue bonds of the State, payable solely from earnings to pay the cost of such motorway; and

(c) To designate the locations of, establish, limit and control the number of points of ingress to and egress from such motorway, as may be necessary or desirable in the judgment of the Commission to insure the proper operation and maintenance of such motorway, and to prohibit entrance to such motorway from any point or points not so designated; provided that the Commission shall provide reasonable access.

122B. As used in this sub-title, the following words and terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) The word "Commission" shall mean the State Roads Commission, or, if said Commission shall be abolished, any board, commission or officer succeeding to the principal functions thereof or upon whom the powers given by this sub-title to such Commission shall be given by law.

(b) The word "motorway" shall mean the superhighway, express highway or arterial highway established or constructed pursuant to the provisions of this sub-title and shall be deemed
