as hereinafter prescribed. Said bonds shall all be known as "Crisfield Bridge Bonds of 1941", and they shall be issued in denominations of Five hundred dollars ($500.00) or One thousand dollars ($1,000.00) each; they shall be numbered consecutively, shall be in negotiable coupon form, registerable as to principal only, and said bonds and the coupons attached thereto shall be suitably lithographed, printed or engraved. Said bonds shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding five per centum (5%) per annum which may be determined as hereinafter provided, and said interest shall be payable semi-annually, accounting from the date or dates of issue of said bonds, and interest coupons shall be attached to each of said bonds to evidence said interest payments as hereinabove provided. Said bonds shall be signed by the Mayor of Crisfield, and the corporate seal of said municipality shall be attached to each bond duly attested by the Clerk thereof. The coupons attached to said bonds shall bear the facsimile signature of said Mayor. Said bonds shall have printed on them a distinct reference to this Act by quotation of the title hereof. Said bonds shall be issued to mature in equal annual instalments of Fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500.00) aggregate par amount thereof in each year, over a period of thirty (30) years. The Mayor and Council of Crisfield shall pledge its full faith and credit to the prompt payment of the principal and interest on said bonds and none of said bonds shall be issued and sold until said Mayor and Council of Crisfield shall have adopted an ordinance authorizing the same in the manner provided for in this Act. Except as herein otherwise expressly provided, the Mayor and Council of Crisfield shall have full and absolute discretion to determine the form and tenor of said bonds, the method and manner of sale thereof, and the distribution of the proceeds derived therefrom.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That before any of said bonds shall be issued and sold, the Mayor and Council of Crisfield shall adopt an ordinance in accordance with law, authorizing the issue of said bonds, prescribing the form thereof, levying and imposing the necessary tax or taxes to provide for the payment of principal and interest thereon, and prescribing the terms and conditions of the sale of said bonds at public sale, all in compliance with the provisions of this Act. Said ordinance shall provide that said bonds shall first be offered for sale at public sale in accordance with the terms of an advertisement of the notice of said sale, the form of which shall be prescribed in said ordinance. Said notice shall be advertised and pub-
