

thereafter, levy upon all the assessable property within the corporate limits of said municipality as now or hereafter defined, a tax or taxes in an amount sufficient to provide for said principal and interest maturities, and said taxes shall be levied and collected in the same manner as other municipal taxes are levied and collected in said city and shall have the same priority in every respect as such other taxes so levied and collected. Said tax or taxes hereby authorized shall not be subject to any limitation heretofore or hereafter imposed upon the taxing power of the Mayor and Council of Crisfield and may be levied, until all of said bonds, and the interest thereon, shall have matured and been paid, without limitation as to rate or amount.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the proceeds from the sale of the bonds hereby authorized shall be paid by the purchaser or purchasers of said bonds to the City Clerk of Crisfield, who shall deduct therefrom all sums received on account of accrued interest which shall be set aside for the first maturing interest coupons of said bonds. From the balance of said proceeds, including any premium received for said bonds, there shall be paid all expenses, incident to the issue of said bonds, including printing, advertising and legal expenses, and the balance of said proceeds shall be held by said City Clerk to be disbursed on the order of the Mayor and Council of Crisfield for the construction of a new draw or stationary bridge in place of the bridge now connecting Tenth Street with that part of the City of Crisfield known as "Jersey", said new bridge to span Somer's Cove at such location, not necessarily the same as the present location, as the Mayor and Council of Crisfield shall, in its discretion, determine. Said balance of said proceeds shall be used exclusively for the construction of said bridge and for no other purpose, but the purchasers of said bonds shall not be liable to see to the application of the purchase money paid therefor.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That none of the provisions of Chapter 630 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at its January Session in the year 1939, shall affect, limit, or have any bearing whatsoever upon the authority herein granted.

SEC. 8.. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.
