

known as Section 34A and to follow immediately after Section 34 of said Article, providing for a general registration of voters in Queen Anne's County in the year 1942.

WHEREAS, There has been no general registration of voters in Queen Anne's County since 1914, and

WHEREAS, The present registration books have been completely filled so that it is impossible to use them for another election, thereby making it necessary to buy new books and transcribe the names thereon, and

WHEREAS, There are hundreds of names of people on the present books who are dead or have moved from the County, and

WHEREAS, Nearly all the other counties of the State have provided for a general registration of voters in recent years, therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new section be and it is hereby added to Article 33 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1939 Edition), title "Elections", sub-title "Registration", said new section to be known as Section 34A, to follow immediately after Section 34 of said Article, and to read as follows:

34A. In Queen Anne's County, a new general registration of all the qualified voters in said County shall be made by the Boards of Registry in the year 1942. Such new general registration shall be made in the same way and under the same rules and provisions in all respects as are in said Article 33 of the Code of Public General Laws made for the first general registration, so far as the same may be applicable, and except as herein modified. Each Board of Registry shall sit for said new registration at the place designated by the Board of Supervisors of Elections of Queen Anne's County on the first Tuesday of April, May, June, July and August, 1942. The register of voters made under the provisions of this section shall supersede and thereafter be used in place of the present register of voters in Queen Anne's County. The said Board of Registry shall also sit on the day prescribed by Section 21 of Article 33 for the intermediate registration of voters preceding primary elections.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the
