8. The insurer shall have the right and opportunity to examine the person of the insured when and so often as it may reasonably require during the pendency of claim hereunder, and also the right and opportunity to make an autopsy in case of death where it is not forbidden by law.

(i) A standard provision relative to the time within which payments other than those for loss of time on account of disability shall be made, which provision may be in either of the following two forms and which may be omitted from any policy providing only benefits for loss of time on account of disability. The insurer shall insert in the blank space either the word "immediately" or appropriate language to designate such period of time, not more than sixty days, as it may desire. Form (F) is to be used in policies which do not provide indemnity for loss of time on account of disability, and Form (G) is to be used in policies which so provide:

(F): 9. All indemnities provided in this policy will be paid..................after receipt of due proof.

(G): 9. All indemnities provided in this policy for loss other than that of time on account of disability will be paid..................after receipt of due proof.

(j) In policies which provide for benefits for loss of time on account of disability, a standard provision relative to periodical payments of such benefits. The insurer shall insert in the first blank space of the form appropriate language to designate the proportion of accrued indemnity it may desire to pay, which proportion may be all or any part not less than one-half, and in the second blank space shall insert any period of time not exceeding sixty days.

10. Upon request of the insured and subject to due proof of loss..............accrued indemnity for loss of time on account of disability will be paid at the expiration of each............during the continuance of the period for which the insurer is liable, and any balance remaining unpaid at the termination of such period will be paid immediately upon receipt of due proof.

(k) A standard provision relative to the persons to whom benefits shall be payable which shall be in Form (H) in policies which provide indemnity for loss of life of the insured and in Form (I) in policies which do not provide indemnity for loss of life of the insured

(H): 11. Indemnity for loss of life of the insured is payable to the beneficiary if surviving the insured, and otherwise to the estate of the insured. All other indemnities of this policy are payable to the insured.
