

weeks. Within ten days after the first publication of said proclamation, the Department shall cause a notice thereof to be mailed to each corporation named therein, addressed to it at its mailing address, if it has a mailing address on file with the Department, or, if it has not a mailing address on file with the Department, addressed to it at any other address which may appear upon the records of the Department. Any such corporation paying all taxes, interest and penalties, and filing such report, as aforesaid, after the first publication of said proclamation, shall be omitted from subsequent publications thereof. Immediately upon the expiration of sixty days from the date of the first publication of said proclamation, the charters of all such corporations, which have not then paid all taxes, interest and penalties due, and filed such reports, as aforesaid, shall be ipso facto repealed, annulled and forfeited and the powers granted to such corporations shall be inoperative, null and void, without the necessity of proceedings of any kind either at law or in equity.

152. (c) When it is established to the satisfaction of the Governor that any corporation named in said proclamation has not neglected or refused to pay said tax within nine months from the first day of January next after the expiration of the calendar year during which said taxes became due and payable, or has not neglected or refused to file such report within nine months from the first day of January next after the expiration of the calendar year in which such report was required to be filed, or has been mistakenly reported to the Governor by the Comptroller as refusing or neglecting to pay such taxes or been mistakenly reported to the Governor by the Department as refusing or neglecting to file such report as aforesaid, the Governor is authorized to correct such mistake and to make the same known by filing his proclamation to that effect in the office of the Secretary of State who shall send copies thereof to the Comptroller, to the Treasurer and to the Department. The effect of such proclamation shall be to restore to said corporation its charter with the same force and effect to all intents and purposes as if said charter had at all times remained in full force and effect.

152. (d) Nothing in this section shall be held or construed to repeal, supersede or in any manner affect any remedy or provision of law for the collection of any and all taxes, and the interest and penalties due thereon, or any remedy or provision of law to compel the filing of such reports.

153. (c) Such articles of revival, together with a copy thereof, shall be delivered to the Department, which, upon the payment, and not before, of a recording fee of $10.00 and a
