

the State of Maryland in the penal sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), and shall be conditioned to save harmless any purchaser or purchasers involved in any transaction pertaining to any sale or delivery of coal by a retail coal dealer wherein the purchaser suffers as a result of improper weighing or defective quality of coal delivered to him. The bond shall be conditioned further that direct action may be maintained thereon by any party so suffering in the name of the State of Maryland to the use of the injured purchaser.

789. Any license issued in accordance with the provisions of this sub-title shall contain all information required on the application for the same and an identifying number, thereafter the permanent number of the retail coal trader, shall be displayed in the principal office of said trader. All such licenses shall expire on June 30th of each year and the fee therefor shall be Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) per annum; for licenses issued for periods of less than one year the fee shall be prorated on a monthly basis but in no case shall it be less than ten dollars and there shall be no rebating on revoked or remitted licenses. The Clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County shall issue unto each licensee a certificate for each transporting vehicle set forth in the application for a license. Said certificate shall contain the name and address of the licensee operating such vehicle, the license number of such vehicle, serial and motor number of the same, and the type and make of the same. Said certificate shall be carried upon the transporting vehicle for which it is issued and shall be displayed to any law enforcement officer at his request whether or not a violation of this or any other law is suspected, and shall be displayed to the retail purchaser before delivery of any coal is attempted, and said Clerk shall charge a fee of one dollar for each certificate so issued, to be paid by the applicant. Any person operating such transporting vehicle without such a certificate or with a false certificate or operating a transporting vehicle with a certificate which does not correspond in all particulars or details to the matters and facts concerning the vehicle described therein or who refuses to display a certificate to a law enforcement officer demanding same shall be guilty of a violation of this sub-title.

790. Substitute or additional vehicles may be operated by any licensee in place of or in addition to the vehicles enumerated in the application by applying for a certificate for same on the form required in an application for a license and obtaining from the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County a certificate for said vehicle, which certificate now contains all the information required for an originally procured certificate, and said Clerk shall charge a fee of one
