791. Each retail coal trader shall, before entering into the business of a retail coal trader in Baltimore County after June 1, 1941, cause his name or license number, in letters not less than three inches in height, to be placed and remain on the outer side of all vehicles owned and operated by him in his actual delivery service.

792. Any license herein granted shall be summarily revoked by the County Commissioners of Baltimore County in the event that the licensee shall fail to maintain his bond as hereinafter provided and no surety shall be released from any bond given in compliance with this ordinance until he shall have notified said County Commissioners in writing by giving fifteen days notice of his intention to discontinue and cancel his bond theretofore given.

793. Nothing in this Act shall apply to or regulate the sale of coal by carload lots to a single consumer, or the sale or delivery of coal over railroad coal piers to vessels or boats, nor shall it apply to or regulate the sale of coal in single paper sacks by a single peck or bushel, provided the exemption is not utilized to avoid the provisions of this sub-title; nor shall it apply to those persons who haul their own coal supply in trucks titled in their own name.

794. It shall be unlawful for any dealer or distributor of coal to deliver coal to any customer, purchaser, or buyer unless the coal so delivered in any particular sale be weighed and in no instance where coal is sold from a bulk load in partial delivery will such deliveries be lawful unless they are weighed separately and a weight ticket accompanies each such delivery certifying the pounds delivered and that the weight was so determined by a weightmaster duly licensed by the Bureau of Mines on scales located within this State which have been tested, approved, and sealed within twelve months by said Bureau.

795. All sums received by the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County for the issuance of licenses or certificates under the provisions of this sub-title, shall be paid over to the County Commissioners of Baltimore County who shall use such sums and employ an officer or officers to enforce this Act and to defray the costs and expenses incurred in administering and enforcing the provisions of this sub-title.

795A. Any person violating any of the provisions of this sub-title shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction
