

65H. No person, firm, or corporation, except the Liquor Control Board for Montgomery County shall keep for sale or sell beer, wine or any alcoholic beverage in Montgomery County unless he is a holder of a license for such purpose, issued by the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Montgomery County, which license shall be issued by said Clerk only with the approval of the Liquor Control Board for Montgomery County. Nor shall any person, firm, or corporation keep for sale or sell any alcoholic beverage not purchased from the Liquor Control Board for Montgomery County, provided however, that nothing in this sub-section shall apply to holders of Class F licenses, to the holder of a wholesaler's license or a beer wholesaler's license who shall not sell or deliver any alcoholic beverage in Montgomery County for resale except to a County Liquor Dispensary. Any person, firm, or corporation violating the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000'00) or imprisoned for not more than two (2) years in the House of Correction, or both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the Court.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That all laws or parts of laws inconsistent with the provisions of this Act be and they are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That if any section, sub-section or any part of any such section or sub-section shall be declared invalid or unconstitutional for any reason whatsoever, such holding or declaration shall in no wise affect the validity of any other section or sub-section or any part of any such section or sub-section; but, to the contrary, it is expressly declared to be the legislative intent that, despite such holding or declaration, each and every other of the remaining sections or sub-sections or any part or parts thereof would have been enacted by the Legislature.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed by a ye and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 28, 1941.
