CHAPTER 929.

(House Bill 569)

AN ACT empowering the County Commissioners of Garrett County to borrow $250,000 and to issue bonds therefor for the construction of a new building for the Oakland High School and providing for the levying of taxes for the repayment of such bonds and for a referendum by the qualified voters of Garrett County on the issuance of the bonds.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That at the election to be held in November, 1942, or at the special election held in Garrett County prior to that date, whichever is first, the question of whether $250,000 in bonds are to be issued for the purposes of this Act shall be submitted to the qualified voters of Garrett County by the Commissioners of Garrett County who shall cause to be printed on the ballots to be used at the election the words, "Shall $250,000 worth of bonds be issued for a new Oakland High School?" and shall provide a way for each qualified voter to answer this question "yes" or "no".

Notice of the submission of said question shall be conspicuously advertised by the County Commissioners of Garrett County in the two County newspapers of said County for three successive weeks prior to the election at which said question is to be voted upon, and such notice shall contain the title of this Act.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That if a majority of the qualified voters of Garrett County, voting at the election in
