

tion of said municipal electric light and power system, then additional bonds may in like manner be issued up to the maximum limitation herein contained to provide the amount of such deficit, and if the proceeds of the revenue notes, bonds or certificates of any issue shall exceed the amount required for such cost of construction, the surplus shall be paid into the fund hereinafter provided for the payment of principal and interest of such revenue notes, bonds or certificates. Prior to the preparation of definitive notes, bonds or certificates, the Mayor and Council may, under like restrictions, issue temporary notes, bonds or certificates, with or without coupons, exchangeable for definitive notes, bonds or certificates upon the issuance of the latter. The Mayor and Council may also provide for the replacement of any note, bond or certificate which shall become mutilated or be destroyed or lost.

116E. For the purpose of any constitutional or statutory debt limitation, none of the revenue notes, bonds or certificates issued under the provisions of Sections 116A to 116X, inclusive, of this sub-title shall be deemed to constitute a debt of the Mayor and Council of Crisfield, nor shall any of such revenue notes, bonds or certificates constitute a pledge of the faith and credit of said municipality for any purpose beyond the limits of the fund provided for their payment and the proper administration thereof as herein provided, and such revenue notes, bonds or certificates shall be payable exclusively and solely from the fund hereinafter provided therefor from revenues derived from said municipal electric light and power system. All such revenue notes, bonds or certificates shall contain on their face a distinct reference to the statutory authority hereby granted by code reference or chapter number, and they shall also contain a statement on their face that the Mayor and Council of Crisfield is not obligated to pay the same or the interest thereon except from revenues and earnings of the municipal electric light and power system for which they are issued, and that the faith and credit of said municipality is not pledged to the payment of the principal and interest of such notes, bonds or certificates except to the extent of such revenues. The issue of such revenue notes, bonds or certificates in accordance with the authority hereby granted shall not directly or indirectly or contingently obligate the Mayor and Council of Crisfield to levy or to pledge any form of taxation whatever therefor or to make any appropriation for their payment.

116F. As hereinbefore provided, the Mayor and Council may, in its discretion, provide for the purchase of said municipal electric light and power system, and the securing of
