

466, respectively, of said Article, providing that male persons sentenced to the County Jail, may under certain conditions, be transferred to the custody of the Chief of Police of Anne Arundel County for the purpose of performing labor and services at the County Police Stations without compensation and that the Sheriff of Anne Arundel County or the Warden of the County Jail may employ such persons to perform labor and services at the County Jail.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new section be and the same is hereby added to Article 2 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Anne Arundel County", sub-title "Police Department", and that another new section be and the same is hereby added to said Article, sub-title "Sheriff", said new sections to be known as Section 406BA and 466A to follow immediately after Sections 406B and 466, respectively, of said Article and to read as follows:

406BA. Subject to the conditions prescribed in this section, the Chief of Police of Anne Arundel County may from time to time obtain the custody of persons sentenced to the county jail of Anne Arundel County for the performance of labor and services in and about the police stations of said County now or hereafter established. The Sheriff of Anne Arundel County is hereby authorized, upon the written request of the said Chief of Police and with the prior consent of the State's Attorney of the county, to transfer any able-bodied male person, sentenced to serve a term of not more than three months in the county jail, to the custody of the County Police, to be held by them for any portion, or portions, of the unexpired term for which such person was sentenced. Any person so transferred to the custody of said Department shall forthwith be taken to a police station in Anne Arundel County and he shall be confined to the premises of the station until such time as he may be returned to the county jail. It shall be the duty of the Department to provide for the guarding, transportation, lodging, feeding, clothing and medical care of all persons so held by it. While in the custody of the Department, such persons shall be employed, without compensation, in performing such services in and about the station as the said Chief of Police may prescribe, including cleaning, cooking and repair and maintenance work; provided, however, that no services shall be required or permitted by the Department to be performed for the benefit of any private person or persons but the same shall be performed only with respect to property used, or persons engaged, in the lawful activities of the Department.