

DUTIES OF ELECTION SUPERVISORS

SEC. 13. The Board of Election Supervisors shall provide all ballot boxes, ballots, registry books, poll books, tally sheets, indelible pencils, blanks and stationery of every kind and description necessary and proper for the registry of voters and all necessary furniture and equipment for the conduct of elections, and the expense thereof shall be paid by the Mayor and City Council whose duty it is to provide suitable accommodations for voting and for the Board of Election Supervisors and to assist them in the discharge of their duties.

SEC. 14. On or before the 3rd Monday in April in each year in which a municipal election is to be held, the Board of Election Supervisors shall appoint a sufficient number of judges of election and clerks, all of whom shall be registered voters of the City of Havre de Grace, to serve for the election next to follow and no longer. The said judges and clerks shall be of good character, intelligent and holding no other local office. All such appointments shall be made not less than one week prior to any election and any vacancy occasioned by death, resignation or removal shall be immediately filled by the said Board. The said judges and clerks shall have all the powers and be subject to all the penalties provided for in State and county elections and shall receive such compensation as the Mayor and City Council may prescribe.

SEC. 15. Every judge of election at every election to be hereafter held in the City of Havre de Grace in pursuance of law, before he proceeds to take or receive any vote, shall take the following oath or affirmation:

"I, ....., do swear that I will permit all persons to vote who shall offer to vote at the election now to be held for the City of Havre de Grace, whose names shall appear on the registry or list of voters furnished to me according to law as qualified voters under Constitution and laws of this State and that I will not permit any person to vote at the same election whose name shall not be found upon the said registry or list of qualified voters; and I will in all things execute the office of judge of the said election, according to the best of my knowledge without favor or partiality, so help me God."

SEC. 16. Every Clerk, before he enters any vote in the poll books, shall take the following oath, to wit:

"I, ....., do swear that I will well and faithfully, without favor, affection or partiality, execute the office of Clerk of the election now to be held, according to the best of my knowledge, so help me God."
