

all persons entering into or beginning transient business in the City for the sale of any goods, wares or merchandise; to levy and collect a tax on the assessable property of the City, including a tax for the use of sewers and sewerage disposition, as may be necessary to pay the interest on the City bonds, and to provide a sinking fund for their redemption at maturity; for the preservation of peace and good order, securing persons and property from violence, danger or destruction; for the suppression and restraint of gambling and vice; for the assessment from time to time of all kinds of property and securities in the City and in the same or other manner in which County or State taxes are or may be levied; and for the levy and collection of a tax thereon for the general purposes of the corporation not exceeding in any one year one dollar and fifty cents to every One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars of assessable property; to fix and pay the compensation of such other officers, agents or servants as may be employed by the corporation as are not hereinafter provided for; to suppress the practice of firing and discharging firearms, firecrackers, rockets, torpedoes and other explosives, either by prohibiting the sale thereof or otherwise; to restrain and prohibit gunning; to create the office of City Engineer and Building Inspector with such powers and duties as they shall, by ordinance, prescribe; to provide for licensing, regulating or restraining circuses or tent shows, theatricals or other public amusements within the City Limits; to establish day and night police; to borrow money on the faith and credit of the City, providing they shall not have the power to borrow any sum or sums beyond the limit hereinafter prescribed; to close or alienate any street or alleys or parts thereof that are already opened; to erect and repair bridges within the corporate limits; to provide for and regulate the cleaning and removal of snow and ice from the sidewalks and pavements adjacent to properties and the punishment of tenants and property owners for failure to comply therewith; to levy and collect taxes on dogs and bitches and to restrain them from going at large; to prevent domestic animals or poultry of any kind from going at large and to restrain and suppress the keeping of any hogpen within the City or any part thereof; to require the removal of any privy, or surface toilet, not equipped with running water located within two hundred feet of the City's sewerage system or to require such privies, or surface toilets, to be equipped with running water supplied by the City, and to enforce the removal of those existing in the instance where the property owner on which the same is located either fails or neglects, after ten days written notice, to equip the same with running water, to prohibit the erection of any privy, or surface toilet, without running water within a distance of two hundred