

warning all persons interested in the property sold to be and appear in said Court by a certain day to be named in said order to show cause, if any there be, why said sale shall not be ratified and confirmed; and in those cases where no cause or an insufficient cause be given against such ratification, the Court may in one order ratify and confirm all sales so made and entitled to be ratified and confirmed and the purchaser or purchasers thereof shall on payment of the purchase money have a good title to the property sold; but if in the judgment of the Court good cause be shown against the ratification of the sale of any parcel of land or other property so sold, and the said sale shall be set aside as to such parcel or property, in which case the Treasurer shall within thirty days proceed to hold a new sale of the said property and bring the proceeds into Court, out of which the purchaser shall be repaid the purchase money paid by him to the Treasurer on said rejected sale, and all taxes assessed on said property and paid by the purchaser since said sale, and all costs and expenses properly incurred in said Court with interest on all such sums from the time of payment; and if the purchaser has not paid the purchase money on the subsequent taxes, said proceeds shall be applied to the payment of the taxes for which the property may have been sold and all subsequent taxes thereon then in arrears, with interest on the same according to law, and the cost of proceedings, but such sale shall not be set aside if the provisions of law shall appear to have been substantially complied with and the burden of proof shall be on the exceptant to show the same to be invalid and with reference to any sale or sales not ratified and confirmed by the said order; and for the purpose of making a just distribution of the proceeds of any sale ratified and confirmed, the said Court may pass all such other or subsequent orders as may be just and equitable, and shall have as full and complete jurisdiction as though it were sitting as a Court of Equity, to pass all such orders as shall seem just and equitable for the purpose of advancing the remedy proposed and the aim and purpose of this article and of doing full and complete justice to all parties interested according to the equity of the matter and after one year from the final ratification thereof, no sale of real estate made for taxes shall be set aside for any cause.

Sec. 90. Whenever real estate shall be sold by the Treasurer, the owner thereof prior to the sale may redeem the same by paying into Court, to be paid to the purchaser thereof, within the period of twelve calendar months from date of such sale, the amount of the purchase money and all subsequent taxes paid by the purchaser with interest thereon at the