SEC. 124. If any person shall excavate any lot or part thereof within the limits of the City for the purpose of obtaining moulding sand or otherwise, to the depth of two feet or more, and the said lot or part thereof shall remain uncovered, it shall be the duty of such person to make and keep in good repair good and sufficient underdrains that will carry off all water that may collect and would otherwise remain in them in the part thereof so excavated; and said under drains shall be well covered and secured so as not to endanger or incommode the public travel or other proper use of any street or alley through which the same shall pass.

SEC. 125. In the excavation of any lot or part thereof, as aforesaid, to a depth of two feet or more adjoining any of the streets or alleys in the City, it shall be the duty of the owner of such lot to erect and keep in repair, good and sufficient walls or fences along such streets and alleys or parts thereof where such excavation so adjoins so as to effectively protect such thoroughfares from injuries and render the use thereof by the public safe and convenient.

SEC. 126. The Mayor and City Council shall grant the temporary use of any street, alley or public thoroughfare of the City which may be required by the owner of any excavated lots, as aforesaid, to enable him to comply with the provisions of the two preceding sections in constructing underdrains, walls or fences, or in making grades.

SEC. 127. The Mayor and City Council shall have full power to prescribe fines and penalties, not less than five nor more than fifty dollars, against the owners of excavated lots, who, after receiving ten days' notice in writing, shall refuse or neglect to comply with the provisions of the three preceding sections; and the fines and penalties prescribed as aforesaid shall be recoverable in the name of the Mayor and City Council before a Trial Magistrate of the City and, when collected, shall be paid to the City Treasurer.

SEC. 128. It shall not be lawful for any person or persons, after the passage of this Act, without the consent of the
