

- (f) Drinking intoxicating liquors or beverages while on active duty either in uniform or plain clothes.
- (g) Visiting any gambling house or house of ill fame not in the course of his duty.
- (h) Absent without leave.
- (i) Sleeping on duty.
- (j) Absent from beat without proper excuse.
- (k) Ignorance of rules or orders.
- (l) Neglect to pay any just debt contracted after appointment.
- (m) Disclosing any proposed action or movement in the Department.
- (n) Asking or accepting a bribe for performance of duty.
- (o) Unnecessary use of revolver or club.
- (p) Or any other wilful or flagrant violation of rules and regulations of the Police Department.

221D. The first policeman to be appointed under the provisions of this Act in the year 1941 shall be appointed on or before the twentieth day of June, 1941. All such policemen shall hold their respective offices, unless discharged, retired or otherwise incapable of serving, until they become sixty-five years old, when they shall be retired; provided, however, that any such officer who has become sixty-five years old shall be eligible for appointment to the position of desk sergeant, which position he may hold until he becomes seventy years old, at which time he shall be retired.

No person shall be eligible for appointment as policemen except males, residents of Frederick City, between the ages of twenty-five and forty-five years inclusive, who have been recommended by the Police Commissioners for Frederick City and those who were active members of the police force at the time of their appointment on December 13, 1940.

221E. Any policeman who is in good standing and who has served on the force for a period of twenty years, including the years of service of any policeman now on the force who may be re-appointed under the provisions of this Act, and who has been retired from active service as provided in Section 221D shall be paid, for life, a sum of money equal to one-half of the salary he was earning at the time of his retirement, payable in semi-monthly instalments. Any policeman retired as provided in Section 221D who shall not have served on the force for a period of twenty years shall be paid, for life, a sum of money pro rated in the proportion that the years he has served as a policeman bears to the whole period of twenty years.

The Mayor and Aldermen of Frederick City shall carry, at the City's expense, Workmen's Compensation Insurance for the benefit of the members of the police force. In the event