

column headed "Remarks" when and where he was previously registered.

(l) Under the head "Court", the name of the court in which the applicant, if naturalized, was so naturalized.

(m) Under the column headed "Qualified voter", the word "yes" if the fact shall appear or be determined by a majority of the Board of Registry, or the word "No" if the fact be not established to the satisfaction of a majority of the Board.

(n) Under the column headed "Date of application", the date, month, day and year, when the applicant presents himself.

(o) After the answer of the applicant to the questions under the heads of each column as above mentioned have been properly entered by the officers of registration in his presence in both registers, and not until then, he must sign his name upon the line under the column headed "Signature", in each of them, unless he shall state his inability to do so, in which case the officer of registration shall make the entry "Cannot write", in the place of said signature.

The Board of Registry, of each precinct shall be entitled to receive from the person or persons having the custody of the same the last preceding registration books for the purpose of comparison and assistance in identification, and if anyone applies for registration who appears in such former registry to be disqualified, his name shall be entered in the new registry, but he shall be marked "Disqualified" unless such grounds of disqualification have been removed. At the end of each day's registry, said officers of registration shall compare the two registers so kept and cause any error in either of them to be corrected by the aid of the entries in the other, so as to make the same agree if there is any difference between them. Each of said officers having the custody of one of said registers shall then sign his name or initials at the end of and under the last name registered, under each letter in the book kept by him so that no name can be added without discovery. The said Board of Registry shall keep on blanks, to be prepared and provided for the purpose by the Board of Supervisors of Elections for said city, an alphabetical list of the names, addresses and color of all persons registered, and a separate list of the names of all persons refused registration, and of all persons whose names are erased from the registry.

The registry books to be furnished by the Supervisors of Elections shall contain a column for "Affiliation" and another column for "Sex". The Board of Supervisors shall as far as practicable select the same places for registration and election in Frederick City as are now or may hereafter be selected by the Board of Supervisors of Elections for Frederick County for State and County registrations and elections.
