

The measure was introduced with the concurrence of the County Commissioners of Washington County.

Wide-spread opposition manifested itself since the adjournment of the General Assembly. As a result, the State Senator from the County and the County Commissioners have withdrawn their support of the measure. Inasmuch as they were most active in its enactment, I consider their change of attitude as justifying the disapproval of the Bill and I will accordingly veto it.